

MINUTES OF SMALL FIRMS & SOLO PRACTITIONERS
SECTION MEETING OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2007

The meeting commenced at 12:15 p.m. Attendees at the meeting were: Bill Brady, Lee Goldstein, Susan Kaufman, Bayard Snyder, Richard Franta and Suzanne Seubert.

Presentation from Parcels, Inc. – informative discussion involving multi-faceted growth of Parcels not only in the Wilmington area but throughout the State and region. Discussion involved handling of trial exhibits, all aspects of e-filing, multi-faxing, copy center, service capacity locally and nationally, bankruptcy searches, document filing in all courts and neighboring jurisdictions, document imaging for paperless offices or storage, shredding capability. They also handle incorporations, including LLC's and they have an IT division providing onsite service. Parcels also offers conferencing space, luncheon capability and transportation to and from the courthouse. Further information may be obtained directly by contacting Parcels at (302)658-9971.

2. Bill Brady's remarks included our ongoing quest to provide speakers at some of our luncheon meetings which would qualify for CLE credit. Suggestions included a presentation from a representative from ODC and/or the accounting firm which conducts the attorney compliance audits. We are also starting to compile topics/speakers for our Spring "Pitfalls" seminar. We are trying to secure a CCP judge as a speaker. Members are urged to contact Bill Brady or Lee Goldstein concerning suggestions in this regard including specific speakers.

Meeting concluded at 1:15 p.m.

LEE C. GOLDSTEIN, SECRETARY
